Fishing in Puerto Rico

Shiraz Charters: Sport Fishing charters of Puerto Rico. As for our special arrangements for tournaments. Fish in the big tournaments in San Juan or St. Thomas or go crazy in a local Puerto Rican tournament, which is more than just a sport fishing experience.

Benitez Fishing Charters: Jump on an air-conditioned 45-foot Hatteras and go look for that record-breaking blue marlin. Up to six people can join the adventure, and Captain Benitez will hook you up with others interested in the trip. Club Náutico de San Juan, Stop 91/2, Fernández Juncos Avenue, Miramar. Ph: (787) 723-2292

Lady Traveller: Go deep-sea fishing on this 58-foot Betram or take an island charter to Vieques, Culebra or St. Thomas. Villa Marina, Fajardo. Ph: (787) 863-2821; (787) 863-1646

Parguera Fishing Charters: Spend a half day or full day with Captain Mickey Amador, who welcomes beginners and experts alike. Look for blue marlin or tuna in deep water, or stay near the reefs for grouper, snapper and mackerel. Route 324, La Parguera. Ph: (787) 382-4648

Club Deportivo Del Oeste: This marina is one of the springboards for ocean adventures on the west coast. Route 102, Barrio Joyuda, Cabo Rojo. Ph: (787) 851-8880

Club NÁUTICO de San Juan: Many of the deep-sea fishing charters leave from this marina just minutes away from Old San Juan and the Condado. Stop 91/2, Fernández Juncos Avenue, Miramar. Ph: (787) 722-0177

Puerto del Rey Marina: From one of the newest marinas in Puerto Rico, you can catch a catamaran, suit up for scuba diving or hook up with a fishing charter. There are also restaurants and boating supply stores. Route 3, km. 51.4, about an hour from San Juan, Fajardo. Ph: (787) 860-1000

Villa Marina: Rent a boat or join a snorkeling expedition at this popular marina. Route 987, km. 1.3, about an hour from San Juan. Fajardo. Ph: (787) 728-2450
